Sir,

By an oversight on the part of one of our clerks your letter of the 13th instant enclosing Comorian Money order for $10. was filed away, and in the folds of another letter and was found late this afternoon after a long search on my part. As the printer has gone for the day I write that there may be no further delay in the money reaching you, and request that you will deduct the amount of the order from

Dr Sir.

By an overnight on the part of one of our clerks your letter of the 13th instant enclosing Comavian money order for $10. was filed away and in the folds of another letter and was found late this afternoon after a long search on my part. As the Director has gone for the day I write that there may be no further delay in the money reaching you, and request that you will deposit the amount of the order from the value of the $25 in mutilated gold coin I sent you to day on my own account. Will collect the coin tomorrow and reimburse myself.

Very truly,
R.E. Preston
